

Organic Harvest Weekend

September 5-7, 2009

Touch the earth - and let the earth touch you.

Learn the basics of organic gardening amidst 2000 acres of abundant natural beauty at Sunburst Sanctuary and nearby organic farm.

Enjoy an educational, hands-on approach to preparing soil, composting, harvesting and cooking a delicious meal. Take home new skills and your own handpicked box of fruits and veggies.

Bonus class on Sunday – the Fine Art of Beekeeping.

Please call for suggested donation. Meals included. Lodging separate.
